Page 98 1 second. September, 2004. 2 Q. Okay. So Ms. DelRiesgo was in the position for 3 almost a year. 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. Okay. When did she leave? 6 A. August, 2004. 7 Q. And why did she leave? 8 A. She left for personal reasons. 9 Q. What were those personal reasons? 10 A. Her mother-in-law was ill in Ohio, and she felt 11 it was important to be up there and support her family. 12 Q. So she moved back there with her husband? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. Did her husband ever actually transfer here? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. Okay. So they actually moved their whole 17 family down here for the position, and then moved all 18 the way back? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. Did Ms. DelRiesgo continue to be employed by 21 Jones Day back in Ohio? 22 A. No, she did not. 23 Q. Why not? 24 A. I don't believe there were any openings in the 25 Columbus office --	Page 100 1 with Jones Day. She didn't actually make an application 2 Ohio? 3 A. No not that I'm aware of. 4 Q. All right. Did you have issues with 5 Ms. DelRiesgo's performance during the time that she was 6 the office GIS manager? 7 A. No, I don't recall any. 8 Q. Did you make an evaluation of her during that 9 time? 10 A. I believe I did. 11 Q. All right. Has that been provided, as far as 12 you know? 13 A. I do not know. 14 Q. Okay. But you did an evaluation of her 15 performance? 16 A. I believe I did. 17 Q. Okay. How did you factor in Ms. DelRiesgo's 18 Jones Day experience in the decision to hire her? 19 A. I considered what the needs of the office were; 20 the leadership we needed in a managerial position; her 21 institutional knowledge of being not only a legal 22 secretary but, of course, as a GIS support person in the 23 Columbus office; and where I understood the overall 24 direction of GIS heading in 2003. 25 Q. Had Ms. DelRiesgo been in a leadership position
Page 99 1 Q. Okay. 2 A. -- which is where she went back to. 3 Q. Did she make an application, as far as you 4 know? 5 A. I do not know. 6 Q. All right. Were you the one that took her -- I 7 guess, her resignation? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. And she came in and said, "My mother-in-law's 10 sick. So I need to quit and move back to Ohio"? 11 A. Yes. 12 Q. All right. Did you make any effort to try and 13 find a position for her in Ohio? 14 A. I did not. 15 Q. Why not? 16 A. I -- it wasn't my position to do so. 17 Q. Well, you're the office manager of the Houston 18 office of Jones Day, correct? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. You're saying that there was no way for you to 21 call Ohio and see if there was any position open? 22 A. I'm not saying there was no way. I was not 23 asked to do so. 24 Q. Okay. So Ms. DelRiesgo said, I mean 25 essentially, she was ready to sever her relationship	Page 101 1 at any point in time in her Jones Day experience? 2 A. I don't know the answer to that. 3 Q. I'm sorry. I want to make sure I understand 4 your answer. 5 You don't know the answer to that; is that 6 what you said? 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. Okay. 9 A. Can you be more specific? 10 Q. Had she been in a leadership position during 11 the ten years that she worked for Jones Day? 12 A. Well, I believe that she was in a leadership 13 position insomuch as her role in the office. As a 14 secretary who worked for a senior partner, other 15 secretaries looked up to her, I believe, looked to her 16 as a resource. In her role as the GIS support person in 17 Columbus, I believe that there were similar -- 18 relatedly, staff also looked up to her in that position. 19 Q. Did you talk to any of those staff members? 20 A. At the time that we conducted the interviews, 21 no, I did not. 22 Q. Well, how, then, did you use this information 23 with respect to her leadership qualities in making your 24 decision? 25 A. Well, I used to work in the Columbus office. I

Page 102 1 had first-hand knowledge of Jerri's experience, her 2 demeanor, her role in the office. 3 Q. How long had you known Ms. DelRiesgo? 4 A. I joined the Columbus office in the fall of 5 1996. I believe Jerri was there at that time. I worked 6 there until relocating to Houston in the spring of 2001. 7 So for a period of less than five years. 8 Q. Okay. Did you socialize with Ms. DelRiesgo? 9 A. No, I did not. 10 Q. Had you ever been to any outside work 11 activities with Ms. DelRiesgo? 12 A. I think I had -- we both attended the annual 13 staff holiday party. That's the extent of it. 14 Q. Okay. So it's your testimony that you never 15 saw her outside of work at all -- 16 A. I never -- 17 Q. -- other than the staff holiday party? 18 A. I don't know if I ran into her outside of the 19 office. Nothing jumps out at me. But we did not 20 socialize. 21 Q. Okay. And you've never been to her home, and 22 she's never been to your home or anything like that? 23 A. True. 24 Q. All right. But you did know Ms. DelRiesgo 25 prior to interviewing her for the position of GIS	Page 104 1 MR. PADGETT: -- on the record. 2 MS. CLARK: Sure. Well, I assume 3 everything we say is on the record. And I'll be glad to 4 clarify for you. 5 When you interrupt a witness while he is 6 answering a question that you asked and does not -- and 7 you do not give him the courtesy of completing that 8 answer before you start your next question, that is 9 harassing. 10 MR. PADGETT: Okay. 11 MS. CLARK: When you point your finger to 12 lecture the witness while he's trying to answer the 13 question that you asked, in my opinion, that's 14 harassing. 15 MR. PADGETT: Okay. Good. All right. 16 Thank you for the clarification. 17 MS. CLARK: You're welcome. 18 Q. (BY MR. PADGETT) So the answer is that you did 19 not tell Mr. Whiting that you had known him (sic), as 20 far as you remember? 21 A. I don't recall using the words, "I know 22 Ms. DelRiesgo." 23 Q. Okay. But you had, in fact, known 24 Ms. DelRiesgo for at least five years? 25 A. I worked in the same office as her. So, yes, I
Page 103 1 manager in Houston? 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. Did you communicate the fact that you knew 4 Ms. DelRiesgo to Mr. Whiting or to Mr. Cowan or to 5 Mr. Metts? 6 A. I expect I would have told Mr. Whiting that we 7 had an applicant from the Columbus office. And he could 8 infer from that that I knew her because I worked there. 9 I don't recall, though -- 10 Q. Okay. And let me interrupt you for a minute 11 because this is one of those questions you identified 12 earlier as having a yes-or-no answer and can be answered 13 efficiently in that manner. 14 Did you tell Mr. Whiting that you knew 15 Ms. DelRiesgo before you interviewed her for the GIS 16 manager position? 17 A. I don't -- 18 MS. CLARK: Objection. I'll object to the 19 extent your questions are harassing. 20 But you can answer. 21 A. I don't recall using those exact words. 22 Q. (BY MR. PADGETT) Hold on for a minute. 23 MR. PADGETT: I want you to clarify what 24 was harassing about that question -- 25 MS. CLARK: Well, he --	Page 105 1 knew her. 2 Q. Okay. Had you had any interaction with her 3 during that time period? 4 A. The five years? 5 Q. Yes. 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. Okay. What sort of interaction did you have 8 with her in the workplace? 9 A. Professional interaction. 10 Q. Okay. But you mentioned earlier that you knew 11 enough about her leadership role to be able to evaluate 12 that and use that as part of your evaluation when you 13 were recommending that she be hired. 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. All right. You knew her well enough to say 16 that other legal secretaries had looked up to her and 17 other people in the GIS departments had looked up to her 18 as well? 19 A. I don't think I said other people in the GIS 20 departments. I indicated other staff, in her role -- 21 Q. Okay. 22 A. -- as a GIS support person, looked up to her. 23 Q. Okay. All right. So you don't recall telling 24 Mr. Whiting, 25 Did you tell Mr. Cowan that you knew

Page 106 1 Ms. DelRiesgo? 2 A. I don't recall. 3 Q. Did you tell Mr. Meets (sic) -- 4 A. Metts. 5 Q. Metts. I'm sorry. 6 -- Metts that you knew Ms. DelRiesgo? 7 A. I don't recall. 8 Q. Did you tell Ms. White that you knew 9 Ms. DelRiesgo? 10 A. Ms. White knew that I knew Ms. DelRiesgo 11 because she knew that I worked in the Columbus office. 12 I don't recall saying to Ms. White, "I know Jerri 13 DelRiesgo." 14 Q. Was your move from the Columbus office a 15 promotion or lateral transfer? 16 A. It was a promotion. 17 Q. What were you before you were promoted to the 18 office administrator of the Houston office? 19 A. I was the financial services manager. 20 Q. And what does the financial services manager 21 do? 22 A. Responsible for the financial side of the 23 business, if you will: the daily accounting, applying 24 the financial policies and procedures that the firm had 25 set forth.	Page 108 1 experience was the key factor in her hiring? 2 A. I would say that her -- it was a contributing 3 factor. 4 Q. I guess, how seriously would you weight that 5 type of factor? 6 A. Well, at the time that we hired our -- 7 Ms. DelRiesgo as the GIS manager, the GIS department as 8 a whole was undergoing some changes. The focus seemed 9 to be, in the past, trying to provide different services 10 to different people in different offices. And the firm 11 was wanting to move this into a more lockstep process, 12 if you will, a more defined process, "here is our 13 desktop. We do not deviate from our desktop. Let's 14 focus on providing service instead of providing 15 technical work-arounds, different types of softwares to 16 different people." 17 So her experience as an end user and, 18 again, in an office that was similar in size or had gone 19 through similar growth that we were expecting to go 20 through made that experience valuable. 21 Q. To make sure I understand, to clarify: The GIS 22 department was going from a service-oriented one to, I 23 guess, a standardization process. And tell me if I'm 24 getting that wrong. But is that what I understand 25 you're saying?
Page 107 1 Q. Is that why, possibly, they had you listed as 2 office financial manager on Exhibit 3? 3 A. I don't know. 4 Q. Okay. Were you fulfilling any of those roles 5 in Houston, though, at all; or did y'all have a separate 6 office financial manager? 7 A. In Houston? 8 Q. Yes, sir. 9 A. At that time we did not have a separate 10 financial manager. 11 Q. Okay. So, I mean, even though that wasn't your 12 title, were you kind of doing some of that work as well, 13 I mean, just kind of merged together? 14 A. In my role as office administrator, I have 15 oversight of all the departments. Financial is one of 16 them. I continue to have oversight and continue to have 17 involvement -- 18 Q. Okay. 19 A. -- in that department. 20 Q. Okay. I mean, and sometimes duties are not 21 entirely clear-cut as to who's -- you know, what 22 category they fall under; would that be a fair 23 statement? 24 A. Yes, it would. 25 Q. Okay. Would you say that Ms. DelRiesgo's	Page 109 1 A. No, we were not standardized. So we had -- 2 Q. Okay. 3 A. -- different standards that we were trying to 4 service. 5 Q. Okay. And -- 6 A. And we were moving from that position into a 7 more standardized system where we could focus on a 8 single approach to service. 9 Q. Okay. 10 A. We didn't -- it's my impression that what we as 11 a firm wanted to do was allow the local office technical 12 folks to focus on service, not on technical solutions, 13 in the sense that we didn't want them to be a 14 jack-of-all-trades who understood operating systems or 15 softwares that every end user might bring to the table. 16 We wanted them to be more experts in the standardized 17 desktop. 18 Q. And I'm sorry if I appear confused. I'm trying 19 to get a handle on what -- so you were looking for 20 people who were less familiar with various software 21 programs or -- I'm sorry. I don't understand. 22 A. Technical skills at the office level -- it's my 23 impression -- became somewhat less important around the 24 time that we were hiring a GIS manager because we wanted 25 to focus more on service to the end user. And if we had

Page 110 1 a standardized desktop, it would allow our technical 2 folks at the office level to focus on mastering the 3 necessary support or the necessary skills to support 4 that desktop, as opposed to having to know a little bit 5 about many different types of desktops or software. 6 Q. Well, had y'all exchanged out everybody's 7 desktops and things at that point? 8 A. We had done different desktop upgrades at 9 different times. I -- 10 Q. What was it that was undertaken in Houston that 11 brought about this sea change from the skills that you 12 had identified were needed before to the skills that you 13 identified were needed now? 14 A. I don't think it's anything that happened in 15 Houston as much as this was a new firm-wide direction. 16 We had a new director. I don't recall exactly when he 17 joined the firm. But we did have a technical consulting 18 company providing interim leadership after the old 19 director Terry Crum left the firm. And while the 20 consultants were providing the interim leadership, they 21 were meeting with the lawyers who compromised (sic) the 22 technology committee, determining where this department 23 fit into the firm and where the direction was going 24 forward, where the direction should be going forward, 25 where the focus should be.	Page 112 1 Q. Okay. So almost four years of experience. 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. And do you know why she wasn't given the 4 position of GIS manager at that time? 5 MS. CLARK: Objection. 6 You can answer. 7 A. There were better-qualified candidates. 8 Q. (BY MR. PADGETT) And was that Mr. Nielsen? 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. All right. And what about Mr. Nielsen's 11 qualifications were better than hers? 12 MS. CLARK: Okay. And let me lodge a 13 running objection to form to the questions regarding the 14 selection of a GIS manager in fall 2004. 15 But you can answer. 16 A. Would you repeat the question, please? 17 Q. (BY MR. PADGETT) Sure. What qualifications did 18 he have that were more than Ms. Slaughter? 19 A. Mr. Nielsen had a four-year degree, and he had 20 been working in the position of GIS manager at another 21 law firm. 22 Q. Of similar size? 23 A. I believe so, yes. 24 Q. What law firm was it? 25 A. Jenkins & Gilchrist.
Page 111 1 Q. All right. Is this the type of thing that 2 would be, I guess, reflected in the position description 3 for GIS manager? 4 A. It might be. 5 Q. When was that document changed or manufactured? 6 Do you remember? 7 A. The GIS manager position? 8 Q. Yes. 9 A. Well, we had our first GIS manager in the fall 10 of 2003. So that was when it was, in the Houston 11 office, first created, if you will. After Jerri 12 DelRiesgo left, we looked at the manager position again 13 to see if there were any other areas that we needed to 14 emphasize or de-emphasize. And we likely made changes 15 to the manager description when Scott Nielsen joined the 16 firm. 17 Q. Did Ms. Slaughter apply for the position of GIS 18 manager in, I guess, September of 2004? 19 A. Yes, she did. 20 Q. Okay. Now, at that point she had had how many 21 years of experience with Jones Day? 22 A. September, 2004, it would have been three 23 years, nine months. 24 Q. I'm sorry. How long? 25 A. Three years, nine months.	Page 113 1 Q. All right. And he understood the same sort of 2 things that you were talking about: the standardization 3 and those types of things? 4 A. I can't speak to his mind-set. He did share 5 the same customer service approach that was important to 6 us. 7 Q. Did you interview Mr. Nielsen? 8 A. Yes, I did. 9 Q. Were you involved in the hiring of Mr. Nielsen? 10 A. Yes, I was. 11 Q. Okay. Did you have any other candidates other 12 than Ms. Slaughter and Mr. Nielsen? 13 A. Yes, we did. 14 Q. And how many other candidates were there? 15 A. I think there were five or six. 16 Q. Were they internal? 17 A. No, I don't believe they were. 18 Q. Okay. Did Ms. Slaughter do any training of 19 Ms. DelRiesgo? 20 A. Other than getting her familiar with the 21 Houston layout, I can't speak to what type of training 22 she did for Ms. DelRiesgo. 23 Q. Okay. So you don't know whether or not she did 24 actually have to train Ms. DelRiesgo on various issues? 25 A. I do not.

Page 114 1 Q. You weren't involved in any of that whatsoever? 2 A. No, I was not. 3 Q. So, if Ms. Slaughter gave a list of the times 4 or the things that she had to train Ms. DelRiesgo on, 5 you can't say that she didn't have to do that? 6 A. I cannot say she did or did not. 7 Q. Okay. 8 MR. PADGETT: I think we are on 11. 9 (Richardson Exhibit No. 11 marked.) 10 Q. (BY MR. PADGETT) I handed you what has been 11 marked as Exhibit 11. 12 Do you recognize this document? 13 A. Yes, I do. 14 Q. Who is S. K. Brown? 15 A. Stacey Brown. 16 Q. What -- 17 A. At -- 18 Q. I was just -- 19 A. At the time -- 20 Q. -- going to ask you: What's her position? 21 A. At the time of this e-mail, she was the human 22 resources coordinator for Houston. 23 Q. All right. Why are you sending her an e-mail 24 about Ms. Slaughter? 25 A. I wanted her to be aware of this conversation,	Page 116 1 others hearing it. 2 Q. Okay. And here you make reference that you 3 and -- you and Hugh -- sorry -- "Hugh" -- Mr. Whiting -- 4 "and I have had many discussions regarding the 5 needs/demands of the office." 6 Are these the ones that we've talked about 7 before that you don't recall the content of? 8 A. The meetings or the many discussions that are 9 referred to in this e-mail are discussions regarding the 10 needs and the demands of the office. So, yes, I guess 11 the answer is: yes. 12 Q. Okay. You say in here "require us to add a 13 second person and that we were going to add the position 14 of GIS manager." 15 Does that mean that as of September of 16 2003, Ms. Slaughter was the only person in the GIS 17 department? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. And how long had she been the only person in 20 that department? 21 A. Well, September -- I'm sorry -- January, 2001, 22 until September, 2003, except for the period when Tammy 23 Long joined the firm. I don't know if we'd categorize 24 her employ as a trainer or it would be categorized as 25 GIS.
Page 115 1 let her know that I had spoken with Ava and that we were 2 ready to post the position. 3 Q. Why did you have to communicate to the HR 4 person that you had spoken with Ms. Slaughter about 5 posting a position? 6 A. The HR person ultimately is the one who posted 7 the position. 8 Q. So you felt that you had to talk to 9 Ms. Slaughter prior to posting the position? 10 A. I felt it was important to give her the 11 courtesy of an advanced notice prior to putting this out 12 in the public office bulletin. 13 Q. Why was that? 14 A. As a courtesy. 15 Q. What made you feel that you had to give her the 16 courtesy of doing that? 17 A. I thought it was appropriate that she be one of 18 the first to know considering it involved the department 19 that she was working in. 20 Q. I guess that's what I'm having a hard time 21 understanding. Can you explain to the jury why it is 22 that you felt that you had to tell Ms. Slaughter about 23 the posting of this position prior to posting it? 24 A. I think it's good managerial communication with 25 staff that they hear changes as it affects them prior to	Page 117 1 Q. Okay. 2 A. If we do, then pull out that period. If we do 3 not, then it's the entire two years and nine months she 4 was the only person -- 5 Q. Okay. 6 A. -- resident in Houston. 7 Q. So you felt that it was important to 8 communicate that to her because that's part of what you 9 consider to be courteous management and good management 10 techniques, to communicate to Ms. Slaughter about the 11 changes you're making in the GIS area, correct? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. And that's what you just told us was part of 14 the reason why you felt that it was important to 15 communicate to Ms. Slaughter that these changes have 16 been made or were going to be made and that you had had 17 discussions with the head of the Houston office, 18 Mr. Whiting, correct? 19 A. Correct. 20 Q. Then in the second paragraph of this, it 21 states -- and tell me if I'm reading this correctly: "I 22 explained to Ava that this was a different position." 23 Well, I'm sorry. Let me back up. 24 "Ava commented that she thought I would 25 have assumed she'd be interested given what she

Page 118 1 currently does. I explained to Ava this was a different 2 position. She asked 'How so?' And I responded I would 3 let the job description speak for itself." 4 Why didn't you tell her what the 5 differences in the position were? 6 A. Well, I wanted the job description to speak for 7 itself. I wanted her to be given a chance to review the 8 job descriptions before I tried to lay out exactly, 9 based on the job description, what the differences were. 10 Q. Well, that's not what this says. This doesn't 11 say, "I explained to Ms. Slaughter, to Ava, that she 12 should go and review the position, then come back to me 13 with any questions." It doesn't say that, does it? 14 A. It does not say that. 15 Q. I mean, what it says is: "I would let the job 16 description speak for itself." 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. Is there any indication that Ms. Slaughter can 19 go and review the job descriptions, compare the two, and 20 then come back and talk about it? 21 A. It does not say this -- it does not say that in 22 this e-mail. 23 Q. All right. And, in fact, you've indicated 24 there's going to be a second person being hired into the 25 GIS manager position, correct?	Page 120 1 manager? 2 A. I don't recall her reaction. 3 Q. Did she seem surprised? 4 A. She may have. 5 Q. Did she seem irate or hostile? 6 A. Not that I recall. 7 Q. You wrote an entire memo in July of 2002 about 8 her outlook. Did you write a memo -- I mean, in other 9 words -- about how she had wagged the finger at you and 10 how she had given you feelings of negativity and all 11 that kind of stuff? Did you write a memo concerning her 12 reaction in September of 2003 when you told her that 13 there was going to be an added position of manager? 14 A. I wrote a memo giving my recollection of the 15 meeting. And that's the memo we're looking at right 16 now, the e-mail that I sent to Stacey Brown. 17 Q. But you don't remember her reaction whatsoever? 18 A. I don't recall exactly her reaction for an 19 event that happened, you know, two and a half years ago. 20 Q. Which is why you write down things usually, to 21 remember them? 22 A. Sometimes, yes. 23 Q. Okay. Did Ms. Slaughter ever come back to you 24 and discuss the differences between the position that 25 she was in and the position of manager?
Page 119 1 A. No. 2 Q. You said earlier we're going to "add a second 3 person" and we are "going to add the position of GIS 4 manager." 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. All right. So, if Ms. Slaughter were to get 7 that position of GIS manager -- and there's no guarantee 8 that she's going to get that at this point because 9 you've indicated you have made a different position from 10 the position that she currently holds, correct? 11 A. Yes. 12 Q. Would you expect Ms. Slaughter -- after having 13 been called the GIS manager for two and a half years; 14 after attending the two GIS manager position, you know, 15 annual meetings; after having been on the phone calls; 16 after everybody in the entire world who works at 17 Jones Day thinking that she is the GIS manager, did you 18 expect her to understand the differences between her 19 position and the GIS manager position? 20 MS. CLARK: Objection; form. 21 You can answer. 22 A. I can't speak to what Ms. Slaughter would or 23 would not understand. 24 Q. (BY MR. PADGETT) What was her reaction when you 25 told her that you are going to add the position of GIS	Page 121 1 A. I think she discussed them with Stacey Brown. 2 I don't recall her coming and speaking with me about 3 this. 4 Q. Why would she go and talk with them or talk 5 with the HR manager about them as opposed to you? 6 A. I don't know why she would have done that. 7 Q. Did you expect her to go to the HR manager 8 after you communicated this to her? 9 A. Just to be clear: At the time it was the HR 10 coordinator. 11 Q. Coordinator. I'm sorry. 12 A. And, yes, the HR coordinator was the person who 13 had the job descriptions. 14 Q. Ah, so you expected that she would go and 15 communicate with the HR coordinator because that's the 16 only place she could get the job description? 17 A. If she wanted to review the job description, 18 that's where she would need to go. 19 Q. You didn't even have the job description when 20 you met with her at this time? 21 A. I don't recall if I had the job description in 22 my office at that time. 23 Q. Okay. What was your response to -- well, I'm 24 sorry. Let me back up for just a minute. 25 You gave her the job posting. But that's

Page 122 1 not the job description; is that correct? 2 A. That's correct. 3 Q. The job posting was contained in that little 4 e-mail or -- I'm sorry -- news letter, or was there 5 another document? 6 A. The short job description is what gets posted 7 in the weekly office bulletin. That is what I provided 8 to Ava on the 18th of September. 9 Q. How soon after that did you start taking 10 interviews for the position of GIS manager? 11 A. I think we interviewed in October, 2003. 12 Q. Can you recall for us a difference between what 13 Ms. Slaughter was doing and what the manager position 14 was going to do? 15 A. The manager position required, I guess, a 16 greater degree of leadership and communication and 17 oversight to the department. The technical support 18 specialist that was Ava's position provided for just 19 that, support, not necessarily oversight. 20 Q. So the support person is the one that was 21 doing, like, the -- I mean, the, you know, 22 troubleshooting and those types of things, 23 troubleshooting and repair; is that correct? 24 A. That is some of the support, yes. 25 Q. But what you needed and what you hadn't seen --	Page 124 1 description does not say "demonstrate leadership," 2 doesn't mean that you cannot go out and demonstrate the 3 leadership showing that it is something that you're 4 interested in -- 5 Q. Okay. 6 A. -- receiving more responsibility for. 7 Q. Did you ever communicate to Ms. Slaughter that 8 she was auditioning for a job that she thought 9 potentially could come down the line? 10 In other words, when did you tell her that 11 she needed to or she had the opportunity to basically 12 have the world as her oyster, you know, that essentially 13 she could become the manager? Did you ever tell her 14 that? 15 A. I did not use those words. 16 Q. Okay. How did you communicate to her that she 17 was, in effect, auditioning for the managerial position? 18 A. Well, as the single resource in the office, I 19 believe it was implicit in her responsibilities or her 20 role in the office that if she was interested in 21 pursuing greater responsibility and becoming a manager, 22 that she was, in effect, in the process of 23 auditioning -- using your word. 24 Q. What greater responsibility could she have 25 taken on than to be the sole person in control of all of
Page 123 1 at least that's your testimony -- in Ms. Slaughter was 2 leadership, communication, and oversight. 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. When did you give Ms. Slaughter the chance to 5 demonstrate to you leadership, communication, and 6 oversight? 7 A. I think she had plenty of opportunity to 8 demonstrate that during the two years and nine months 9 that she was filling the role of technology support 10 specialist. 11 Q. And forgive me if I'm wrong. But I thought you 12 said that she was not serving in the role of a manager 13 during that time period, but was serving in the role of 14 a support specialist. 15 A. That's true. 16 Q. So back to my question again. And maybe I need 17 to rephrase it. But when did Ms. Slaughter receive the 18 opportunity to show you leadership, communication, and 19 oversight, the factors that you believe are important 20 for the managerial position? 21 A. Well, I'm going to answer that the same way: 22 She had two years and nine months to demonstrate that. 23 For somebody who wants to take on increased 24 responsibility, whether it's a technical role or a 25 support services mail room role, just because your job	Page 125 1 the GIS issues in the office? 2 A. Well, I think she could be a more effective 3 communicator. She could participate more actively in 4 the firm GIS initiatives, conference calls; otherwise, 5 come to me and say, "I want more responsibility." 6 Q. How do you know that she was not participating 7 in the firm conference calls? 8 A. The people who -- the GIS folks who ran these 9 conference calls at different times would tell me that 10 Ava was not on the call or that, if Ava was on the call, 11 they didn't hear from her. 12 Q. Did they send that to you in writing, or was 13 this just calling you up and telling you? 14 A. Probably the latter. 15 Q. Being they -- 16 A. Calling me. 17 Q. -- call you up? 18 Okay. Do you recall them ever 19 communicating to you in writing that that had happened? 20 A. As it pertains to participating on the firm GIS 21 conference calls, I do not recall receiving something in 22 writing. 23 Q. Would you tell the jury that that was of 24 critical importance to you, at least in your mind, in 25 other words, that she was not demonstrating the

Page 126 1 leadership? 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. Okay. And, in fact, that would have been one 4 of the reasons that you would identify as being 5 critically important to her exercising judgment. I 6 mean, in other words, if she's not using her judgment 7 properly, then that -- you know, not participating, 8 that's not a good exercise of judgment, which is part 9 and parcel to leadership. 10 A. Well, you know, I did not sit in on these 11 calls. I expect that there were many times where 12 participating wasn't appropriate, was not necessary. It 13 was more of a submissive listening role. 14 Q. Okay. But, I mean, at some point in time you 15 felt that it was important enough that these people were 16 calling you and telling you that Ava Slaughter was not 17 participating in these calls. 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. Were these unsolicited calls? People would 20 just call you up and say, "Kevin, I just think you need 21 to know" -- or, "Mr. Richardson, I think you need to 22 know, as the office administrator of Houston, that this 23 person that everybody else thinks is a manager, she's 24 not acting like a manager"? 25 A. I'm sorry, could you restate the question?	Page 128 1 than receiving the information from Ava as it relates to 2 our office, then, you know, I'm picking up the phone and 3 sometimes asking, "Can you tell me about this?" whether 4 I'm calling Ava or calling somebody in Cleveland trying 5 to understand what was it that was discussed on a call 6 that was important enough to be discussed on an 7 administrator call that I don't know anything about. 8 Q. And would that put you behind the eight ball 9 with respect to the other office administrators? In 10 other words, they all knew about it; but you didn't? 11 A. At times that might happen. 12 Q. Okay. They keep minutes of these calls, don't 13 they? 14 A. Which calls? 15 Q. These conference calls, these weekly conference 16 calls. 17 A. Which conference calls? 18 Q. The office administrator, do they keep minutes 19 of those calls? 20 A. Not that I'm aware of. 21 Q. I mean, we know that they keep minutes of the 22 ISS calls, right? 23 A. We know they kept minutes for the call that you 24 submitted as an exhibit. 25 Q. All right. Exhibit 2, we got this from Jones
Page 127 1 Q. Well, these people, you know, the ones that 2 called you, they felt that it was important enough 3 that -- even though everyone else in the world is 4 calling her the GIS manager, they felt it was important 5 enough, with respect to the phone calls, to call you and 6 tell you that she's not participating? 7 MS. CLARK: Objection. 8 Q. (BY MR. PADGETT) Is that correct? 9 MS. CLARK: Excuse me. 10 Objection. 11 You can answer. 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. (BY MR. PADGETT) And how did these phone calls 14 come about? Do you remember? 15 A. Well, we have probably every other week an 16 office administrator phone call. And at times we have 17 updates, if you will, from the director of GIS or the 18 director of administration who may discuss things 19 related to GIS. 20 There were times when I would find out, on 21 the office administrator phone calls, about technical 22 initiatives that, perhaps, were previously discussed and 23 rolled out, if you will, to the GIS folks on these 24 weekly or biweekly operation calls. So if I'm hearing 25 about it through an office administrator call rather	Page 129 1 Day. 2 A. Right. 3 Q. All right? I don't have any of these. 4 Do you know if they were keeping minutes 5 of these calls, or is this the only one that they kept? 6 A. I do not know the answer to that. 7 Q. Had you ever seen a document like this before 8 (indicating)? 9 A. Prior to discovery? 10 Q. (Moving head up and down.) 11 A. Not that I recall. 12 Q. So, as far as we know, they don't keep these 13 minutes? Or if they had, it would have shown whether or 14 not Ms. Slaughter was actually participating in the 15 call, correct? 16 A. I expect it would, yes. 17 Q. Okay. Who is it that called you up and told 18 you that Ms. Slaughter was not demonstrating this 19 leadership by participating in the weekly conference 20 calls? 21 A. I don't recall who would have called me or who 22 did call me on this. It's very likely either Natalie 23 Anton or Sara White. 24 Q. And who's Natalie Anton? 25 A. Natalie Anton was the North America regional

1 manager -- 2 Q. And -- 3 A. -- prior to Sara White. 4 Q. Okay. So it was Natalie Anton first and then 5 Sara White? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. They were in the same position? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. Okay. And you said North American Regional... 10 A. Manager. 11 Q. Manager. Okay. 12 A. I don't honestly know if that is the exact 13 title. But I think it's something like that. 14 Q. But basically it's the regional GIS person? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. Okay. Ms. Anton or Ms. White, either one, they 17 would have been -- whoever is the GIS manager in 18 Jones Day in Houston, that's their boss in some ways? 19 A. No. 20 Q. No? 21 A. No. 22 Q. Okay. What would be the relationship between 23 the GIS manager in a local office and the regional 24 manager? 25 A. I expect it's more of a support or peer role.	Page 130 1 Q. Okay. Do you have any reason to doubt that in 2 the minutes, Exhibit 2, Slaughter versus Jones Day at 3 Page 00433 -- do you have any reason to doubt that the 4 minutes were accurately reflected? 5 A. No, I do not. 6 Q. Okay. When Ms. Anton called you and said, 7 "Your manager is not participating in these calls," did 8 you tell her, "No, that's not my manager. That's the 9 technical support specialist"? 10 MS. CLARK: Objection. 11 You can answer. 12 A. I don't recall. 13 Q. (BY MR. PADGETT) Did that topic ever come up? 14 A. I met Ms. Anton in March of 2001 while she was 15 still helping to roll out the Houston office. 16 I recall having conversations with Natalie 17 sometime around then, maybe soon thereafter, about the 18 position in the Houston office and indicating at that 19 time that it was not a manager position. 20 Q. Did you document those conversations? 21 A. No. 22 Q. Did Ms. Natalie then -- or Ms. Natalie Anton 23 then go back and correct the misperception and say in 24 one of these meetings, "I know earlier I had announced 25 that Ms. Anton" -- "Ms. Slaughter is the manager of
Page 131 1 Q. Okay. So there's no hierarchy there involved? 2 A. Well -- 3 Q. In other words, the GIS manager of a local law 4 office is going to be the same as the North American 5 regional manager? 6 A. I cannot speak to that exact hierarchy. 7 Q. Okay. 8 A. I can tell you that my understanding is that 9 the North America position serves as a -- in some ways 10 the role is to serve as a gathering place for 11 information that each office demands request that each 12 office might have. That could then be filtered to the 13 appropriate firm-wide director or associate director, et 14 cetera. 15 Q. Okay. All right. How many times did Ms. Anton 16 or Ms. White call you and tell you that Ms. Slaughter 17 was not participating in these calls? 18 A. I don't recall. 19 Q. Did you keep track of how many times they 20 called you and told you? 21 A. No, I did not. 22 Q. Now, you know that Ms. -- that Natalie actually 23 announced that the manager in the Houston office was Ava 24 Slaughter. 25 A. I know that's in the minutes.	Page 133 1 Houston. But she's not the manager"? 2 A. I don't know if she did or did not. 3 Q. Would that have been important to you? 4 A. It would be important to the extent that it 5 cleared up a misperception. 6 Q. Okay. 7 A. To the extent that it was injurious to the 8 relationship Ava had with some of the other GIS folks in 9 the office -- I'm sorry. Not the office -- in the firm, 10 then it would not be my desire to throw that out there 11 in front of them in the sense that they don't need to 12 know what her position is other than the fact that she 13 is the Houston office TSS contact. 14 Q. Earlier you told this jury that the position 15 that Ms. Anton and Ms. White later were fulfilling was 16 sort of an information gathering position for 17 information that needed to be rolled out to the other 18 offices. 19 Was it not your intent when you 20 communicated to Ms. Anton, in the conversation that 21 you've now told us about, that Ms. Slaughter was not the 22 manager -- wasn't it your intention to have that 23 information rolled out to the rest of the offices? 24 A. It was my intent that Natalie or Sara be clear 25 on what the position is so the same mistake, by

Page 134 1 misidentifying her position, would not repeat itself. 2 Q. I assume you followed up to make certain that 3 that mistake was not made again. 4 A. We had more than one conversation about this. 5 Q. How – 6 A. Let me clarify. 7 Q. Okay. 8 A. I spoke to more than one person about this 9 issue. 10 Q. Who did you speak to? 11 A. Natalie Anton, Sara White, George Gazdick, Sue 12 Klingensmith, perhaps others. 13 Q. How many times did y'all have conversations 14 about that? 15 A. I don't recall exactly how many times. 16 Q. Among the other categories of things that you 17 talked about was communication and oversight. And 18 you've talked a little bit about leadership. Can you 19 talk to me about oversight? Well, you've also talked 20 about communication as well. Can you talk to me about 21 what you mean by oversight? Is that exercising 22 judgment? What do you mean by that? 23 A. Well, yes, I think it includes exercising 24 judgment. It also includes establishing priorities; 25 setting forth initiatives; making sure that the Houston	Page 136 1 another copy of it, and I don't. That's okay. 2 MS. CLARK: You need a copy? 3 MR. PADGETT: Yeah, just for a second. 4 Q. (BY MR. PADGETT) All right. Do you recognize 5 this document (indicating)? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. This is a document that you sent. And then it 8 says "memo to file." Is this something that would have 9 been included in your secure file? 10 A. No. 11 Q. When you say "memo to file," what do you mean 12 here? 13 A. Well, at this time it was sent to Kari Smidt, 14 who was the human resource coordinator. I think it was 15 a memo for her file, not Ava's personnel file. 16 Q. Okay. So Ms. Smidt was maintaining a separate 17 file or – excuse me – a file separate from her 18 personnel file on Ms. Slaughter? 19 A. In her role as the HR coordinator, she 20 maintained many different communications involving many 21 different employees. 22 Q. Is it your testimony that there is a separate 23 file maintained by the human resources coordinator, a 24 file that is actually separate from the secure file that 25 you maintain and which is also separate from the
Page 135 1 office was represented and was compliant with firm 2 standards, firm GIS initiatives. 3 Q. Why would exercising judgement be important? 4 A. Well, the manager needs to exercise good 5 judgment -- 6 Q. Okay. 7 A. -- in order to lead effectively. 8 Q. Why would establishing priorities be important? 9 Is that a more exercising judgment kind of thing, 10 picking and choosing which ones are important? 11 A. Yes. 12 Q. Okay. Why would initiative be important? 13 A. For the same reasons. 14 Q. Okay. 15 (Richardson Exhibit No. 12 marked.) 16 Q. (BY MR. PADGETT) Let me show you what I've 17 marked as Exhibit 12 (indicating). 18 MR. PADGETT: Let me look at what I marked 19 as Exhibit 12. Sorry. I think I've got it confused or 20 mixed up. 21 MS. CLARK: It's the June 28th, 2001 22 e-mail from Kevin to Ms. Smidt. 23 MR. PADGETT: Okay. June 28th? 24 MS. CLARK: Uh-huh. 25 MR. PADGETT: Okay. I thought I had	Page 137 1 personnel file? 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. All right. Do you know if that separate human 4 resources coordinator file has been produced to us? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. How can we tell what is contained in the 7 separate human resources coordinator file? 8 A. Well, generally speaking, anything that you 9 have from Kari Smidt or Stacey Brown is in the human 10 resources coordinator's drop file or whatever 11 terminology you want to use here. 12 Q. Are copies of those documents also placed under 13 the personnel file of the individual? 14 A. Not necessarily. 15 Q. Why not, if you know? 16 A. Well, I think it depends on what the 17 communication is. We create these types of records to 18 recall -- to serve a purpose so that in the future we 19 can recall certain actions or activities that have taken 20 place. It does not mean that every single memo 21 regarding an employee goes directly into a personnel 22 file. 23 Q. Do you know: Is there a file that's maintained 24 which documents good performance by employees? 25 A. Yes.

Page 186 1 A. Well, actually, we did hire a contractor. 2 Q. Okay. 3 A. It was not to focus on troubleshooting. But it 4 was somebody to lead the technology effort related to 5 our relocation. By not engaging Ava Slaughter in that 6 project, it freed her up to address some of the 7 troubleshooting issues that were important to having the 8 office, you know, successfully run every day. 9 Q. When did you hire the contractor for the 10 relocation? Wasn't that in October or November of 2003? 11 A. I don't -- no, it was much earlier than that. 12 It may have been late 2002, beginning of 2003. I don't 13 recall exactly when they were engaged. 14 Q. Who was the contractor? 15 A. Baker Robbins. 16 Q. Who approved the invoice for Baker Robbins? 17 A. I approved the invoice -- 18 Q. You approved it? 19 A. -- for Baker Robbins. 20 Q. Okay. And I'm sorry if I've never heard of 21 Baker Robbins. I may be behind the times. But who are 22 they? 23 A. They're a Houston-based technology firm. I 24 don't know if it's based. They have an office in 25 Chicago and I believe something --	Page 188 1 or how the configuration of the computers is going to be 2 when you move? I guess, if you could describe for me: 3 What would be the recommendation they would make? 4 A. Well, we were looking at whether or not we 5 should provide wireless technology in the office. 6 Q. Okay. 7 A. We were looking at whether or not we should 8 provide voice-over internet protocol in the office. 9 Q. Okay. 10 A. We were looking at what the actual equipment 11 needed to be to support the network connections that we 12 aspired to require once we were fully built out. They 13 would make recommendations along that line. 14 Q. Okay. So they were essentially giving you 15 blueprints for what it is that you were going to look 16 like in the future? 17 A. I think that's a fair statement, yes. 18 Q. All right. What of Ms. Slaughter's duties did 19 they take away from her that freed her up? 20 A. I'm not sure they took anything away from her. 21 Q. Okay. Well, then, how is it that she was aided 22 in the carrying out of her duties by the hiring of 23 Baker Robbins? 24 A. Well, when I say they didn't take anything away 25 from her, it's more that we didn't have to add
Page 187 1 Q. Okay. 2 A. -- in London and perhaps something on the West 3 Coast. But Brad Robbins is one of the main partners. 4 And I know he's a resident in Houston. 5 Q. Okay. When you say "technology firm," can you 6 describe for me what it is they do, because I've never 7 heard of them before. I'm not trying to be difficult 8 about this. 9 A. I would hesitate to describe what it is they 10 do. I know what they did for us. They provided project 11 management as it relates to technology and our move. 12 Q. Okay. So -- 13 A. They did drawings. They -- 14 Q. Drawings. Okay. 15 A. They made recommendations. We wanted to be 16 cutting edge. They were better plugged in than -- you 17 know, this is all they did. And they were a local 18 resource for us. 19 Q. When you say "all they did," "this" -- 20 A. "This" meaning technology consulting -- 21 Q. Got it. 22 A. -- especially with law firms and maybe others. 23 But that was their strength. 24 Q. Okay. And are you talking about they would 25 give you specific ideas about how you move the computers	Page 189 1 responsibility to Ava's list. 2 Q. Okay. Well, in what fashion did Baker Robbins 3 allow her to perform managerial duties better? 4 A. Well, she didn't have managerial duties. So -- 5 Q. Okay. 6 A. -- they provided the managerial -- the 7 technical leadership, if you will, as it relates to the 8 move. And if you want to incorporate managerial into 9 that, then that's probably fair. That freed up Ava to 10 focus on her day-to-day responsibilities. 11 Q. Do you know who Aaron Gard is? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. Who's he? 14 A. He's an associate. 15 Q. Associate attorney at... 16 A. At Jones Day. 17 Q. Jones Day. 18 How long had he been there in May of 2003? 19 A. Maybe one year. 20 Q. Okay. When you say "associate," was he 21 brand-new out of -- 22 A. He was out of law school, yes. 23 Q. Out of law school. All right. 24 (Richardson Exhibit No. 24 marked.) 25 Q. (BY MR. PADGETT) If you'll look at Exhibit 23

1 (sic), did this Exhibit 23 (sic), which is a Performance 2 Evaluation Additional Comments -- did you take into 3 account this information when deciding whether or not to 4 hire Ms. Slaughter as the GIS manager? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. All right. And is this consistent with the 7 employee that you've been describing as not 8 communicating and not being available? 9 A. Could you rephrase the question? 10 Q. Well, I mean, in here he says: "From thousands 11 of e-mails to Power Trader audio, Ava has been a big 12 help when it comes to compiling the information and 13 getting multiple copies made to distribute to anyone and 14 everyone. Whenever I've asked for her help, she's 15 responded. She has really proven herself to be someone 16 I could call on in a crunch for her help." 17 Is that the profile of an individual 18 employee who's not available for pages? 19 A. That's not -- Aaron Gard's description would 20 not be consistent with an employee who is not responding 21 to pages. 22 Q. Did you go and talk to Aaron to find out, you 23 know, what was going on and why he was describing 24 somebody who was so different from somebody that you 25 thought was not responding to pages?	1 A. Yes, she is. 2 Q. Okay. 3 (Richardson Exhibit No. 26 marked.) 4 Q. (BY MR. PADGETT) Let's take a look at 5 Exhibit 26 (indicating). 6 And I'll ask you -- again, this is a group 7 exhibit -- are these the evaluations forms of Mary 8 Adams, who was the other potential candidate that was 9 considered at the same time as Ms. DelRiesgo and 10 Ms. Slaughter? 11 A. These are evaluations of Mary Adams. 12 Q. All right. Did you consider those when you 13 were making the decision -- 14 A. That's an extra copy. That's the same thing. 15 You gave me three of the same thing (indicating 16 throughout). 17 Q. Okay. Okay. Well, good, then. That means we 18 all get one. 19 Okay. So is this an evaluation that you 20 had at the time? 21 A. Yes, I had this evaluation. 22 Q. All right. Do you know if you had the 2003 23 evaluation from Mary Adams? 24 A. I expect we did. 25 Q. Okay.
1 A. No, I did not. 2 Q. Okay. 3 (Richardson Exhibit No. 25 marked.) 4 Q. (BY MR. PADGETT) If you'll take a look at 5 Exhibit 25. 6 And I'm just going to group this one since 7 it's the 2002 and 2003 evaluations of Ms. DelRiesgo. 8 (Discussion off the record.) 9 MR. PADGETT: I only have one copy of this 10 one. So I'm just going to let you take a look at it. 11 MS. CLARK: And that's -- 12 MR. PADGETT: These are Jerri DelRiesgo's 13 evaluations. 14 Q. (BY MR. PADGETT) Basically my question for you 15 pretty quickly on these is: Did you have a chance to 16 look at those before you made the decision to hire 17 Ms. DelRiesgo? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. All right. And is that information that you 20 took into account along with your history of knowing 21 her? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. All right. And Ms. DelRiesgo is or was, I 24 guess, still is -- I don't know if she's alive or not -- 25 a Caucasian lady, correct?	1 (Richardson Exhibit No. 27 marked.) 2 Q. (BY MR. PADGETT) All right. Now, these are 3 another group exhibit I'm labeling as Exhibit 27. 4 MS. CLARK: Could you pass those to me 5 (indicating)? 6 MR. PADGETT: Sorry. 7 MS. CLARK: Thank you. 8 Q. (BY MR. PADGETT) It consists of Pages 9 Jones Day 00265 through 273. 10 Do you recognize these documents? 11 A. Yes. 12 Q. All right. What are they? 13 A. These are the resumes or application memos that 14 were submitted for the 2003 GIS manager position. And 15 they contain the notes I made during the interviews. 16 Q. All right. And all of the handwriting on these 17 documents, is that your handwriting? 18 A. Yes, it is. 19 Q. Is this the only place where you took notes? 20 A. I believe so. 21 Q. In other words, did you have a separate notepad 22 or anything like that upon which you wrote things? 23 A. Not that I recall. 24 Q. All right. Let's start with the Page 0266. 25 A. Okay.

Page 194 1 Q. Can you translate for me? I apologize. I'm 2 not going to make any comments about your handwriting, 3 because mine is just -- well, actually, it's worse than 4 yours. But can you provide for us a translation of the 5 words that you put down on the paper here? 6 A. Starting at the top, it looks like "seven years 7 end user experience." 8 Q. Okay. 9 A. Going down the left-hand side, "experience with 10 end users." 11 Q. Okay. And what does that mean? 12 A. In the context of the conversation I was having 13 with Mary Adams at the time, it meant something. 14 Looking at it from the abstract right now, I'm not sure 15 what it meant other than making a note that she had this 16 type of experience. 17 Q. And when you say "end user experience," does 18 that make any sense to you at this point in time? 19 A. I know what "end user experience" means to me 20 now. 21 Q. Okay. Do you know what it meant at the time? 22 A. As I said, I -- 23 Q. No. Okay. 24 A. -- I'm not recalling this conversation. I 25 don't know what we were discussing other than what	Page 196 1 And I want to differentiate between an 2 office-type position, an office GIS position, versus a 3 firm GIS position. The firm GIS positions, there were, 4 I expect, many other titles. I can't say really how 5 they rank. 6 Q. Can you differentiate for the jury so we can 7 understand the difference between the firm and the other 8 one that you said? Sorry. 9 A. The office? 10 Q. The office, yeah. What are the two differences 11 there? 12 A. Well, the office is responsible for the support 13 of the office. Typically that's it. The firm is 14 responsible for making decisions as it relates to the 15 type of technology that is made available to the office 16 and, I think, more high-level-type decisions as it 17 relates to budgeting and deciding where the firm as a 18 whole is going to go on the technology front. 19 Q. Okay. I thought I understood, but I don't. 20 Are you talking IT organization firm 21 versus office? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. Okay. 24 A. IT technology, GIS, ISS, TSS. 25 Q. Just whatever y'all called it. Okay.
Page 195 1 experience she had with -- as an end user and supporting 2 end users. 3 Q. Okay. All right. Go to the next portion here 4 and read that for us, please. 5 A. It looks like "perspective of the office." And 6 then it has a line pointing to "Irvine and San Francisco 7 relocation gave her this perspective." Below that it 8 says "second and third shift and contractor 9 supervisory." 10 Q. Do you have any information as to what that all 11 might mean? 12 A. No, I do not. 13 Q. But we know that she has worked for Jones Day 14 from 2002 to the present; is that correct? 15 A. I think it was 2001 to the present. 16 Q. 2001 to the present. Sorry. So she's been there as long as 17 Ms. Slaughter has been? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. All right. During that whole time she was 20 serving as a technical services analyst and sometimes as 21 a process analyst. Are those positions that are, I 22 guess, at the same level as Ms. Slaughter? 23 A. I don't know where they fit in the hierarchy. 24 Mary Adams worked in the firm organization.	Page 197 1 A. (Moving head up and down.) 2 Q. With respect to the firm, you're saying the 3 firm is making firm-wide decisions? 4 A. Typically the responsibilities -- my impression 5 is that the firm GIS organization, separate from the 6 office GIS, makes decisions that are then rolled down to 7 the office. 8 Q. Okay. 9 A. They are taking a long-view approach towards 10 planning and budgeting and support issues. And that 11 gets rolled down to the office level. And the office 12 level, you know, depending on what it is, may implement, 13 otherwise, just support some of the decisions that the 14 firm GIS decision-makers are advancing. 15 Q. All right. Had Ms. Adams had any experience in 16 being the sole person in an IT environment at Jones Day? 17 A. I don't think she did. 18 Q. All right. Manco, Inc. -- if you'll go down 19 there and tell us what it is you said written there 20 next. 21 A. "What industry?" 22 Q. Okay. 23 A. Answer -- I imagine the answer was "consumer 24 adhesive company." 25 Q. Consumer adhesive company. Okay. Band-Aid

22 THE WITNESS: Can we take a break?	22 A. I'm --
23 MR. PADGETT: Absolutely.	23 MS. CLARK: Objection.
24 (Recess taken.)	24 You can answer.
25 Q. (BY MR. PADGETT) Okay. We are still in the	25 A. I'm not sure anybody was referring to her as

Page 202 1 the GIS manager. The reality is she was added to a 2 distribution list because the Houston office needed to 3 receive these communications. 4 Q. (BY MR. PADGETT) Okay. Well, we know that 5 Natalie in 2001 introduced her as the GIS manager. 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. All right. And we know that there are other 8 e-mails out there where people refer to her as the GIS 9 manager. 10 Is it your testimony that nobody else was 11 referring to her as the GIS manager? 12 A. No, that's not my testimony. I think having 13 her name listed on a chart or having her name appear in 14 a distribution list does not necessarily mean that she 15 is a GIS manager. And if somebody is using that list, 16 that distribution list, or referring to that chart in 17 context, doesn't make her a GIS manager or the person 18 sending the e-mail or looking at the chart thinking, 19 "Ava Slaughter is representing herself as the GIS 20 manager." 21 Q. Okay. Let's take a look at the writing that 22 you have on Ava Slaughter's resume. 23 A. Okay. 24 Q. Can you tell us what it is that you've written 25 down there?	Page 204 1 saying to you? 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. Okay. So, in other words, she is saying, "My 4 strengths are my leadership abilities and technical 5 know-how"? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. "And my perceived weaknesses are my unrealistic 8 demands on others and that I'm too thorough and easily 9 wounded. And I want to be tougher"; is that correct? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. What was your reaction when she said one of her 12 strengths was her leadership abilities? Did you scoff? 13 A. I think it's unlikely that I scoffed. 14 Q. All right. What was your reaction? 15 A. I think I accepted it at face value, that that 16 is what she perceives her strength to be. 17 Q. And that's wrong from your perspective, though? 18 A. I don't consider her leadership ability to be a 19 strength as it applies to the position that she was 20 filling at Jones Day. 21 Q. Okay. Well, not the position she was filling 22 but the position that she was looking at, correct, 23 because that's what we're evaluating her for here is the 24 GIS manager position? 25 A. That is correct.
Page 203 1 A. Well, I think on the left it might say "big 2 picture." 3 Q. Big picture. Okay. 4 A. I think that's what it says. It's cut off. 5 Q. Okay. 6 A. Starting at the top it says "strengths." 7 Underneath that it says "leadership abilities, technical 8 know-how, 'quite a few,' loyalty/dedicated." 9 Under -- to the right of that, it says 10 "perceived weaknesses." Underneath that it says 11 "unrealistic demands on others, too thorough, easily 12 wounded, wants to be tougher." 13 To the right of that, there are two words. 14 They both seem to be scratched out. But I can read that 15 the second word says "communication." I don't know what 16 the word above it says. 17 Q. Okay. But you wrote that and then scratched it 18 out for some reason; is that right? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. Okay. Do you remember the reason that you 21 would have scratched it out or... 22 A. No. There's a scratch out to the right (sic) 23 of easily wounded as well. And I don't know what that 24 is either. 25 Q. Okay. Now, are these strengths that she is	Page 205 1 Q. And -- 2 A. My experience with her was only as a technology 3 support specialist. 4 Q. Well, did you feel that it was accurate that 5 one of her strengths that she would bring to the 6 position of GIS manager would be her leadership 7 abilities? 8 A. That is what she stated her strength to be. 9 Q. Did you agree that she was strong in the area 10 of leadership abilities? 11 A. I did not think that leadership, as 12 demonstrated to me during her two years and nine months 13 at Jones Day, was a strength. 14 Q. If she was acting only as a TSS, technology 15 support specialist, when did she have an ability to 16 demonstrate to you leadership abilities? 17 MS. CLARK: Objection; asked and answered. 18 But you can answer. 19 A. Well, we discussed this earlier. She had 20 opportunities to demonstrate leadership by either asking 21 for more responsibility or, otherwise, demonstrating 22 that she could be a leader at Jones Day. 23 Q. (BY MR. PADGETT) Okay. And those were 24 opportunities that you provided to her? 25 A. Every day she walked in that door, that

Page 206 1 opportunity was available to her. 2 Q. Okay. And, in your opinion, she just failed to 3 do that; is that correct? 4 A. My opinion is that she did not demonstrate the 5 leadership that the GIS position -- GIS manager position 6 required. 7 Q. Go ahead and tell me what the rest of the 8 writing is. 9 A. "Tammy was a very good person." 10 Q. Why did Tammy come up in this conversation? 11 A. I don't recall. I expect we were talking about 12 her recent experience. As I read through her resume to 13 see if there is something specific this refers to, I -- 14 her second bullet point: "trained mentored, and 15 supervised trainer/GIS support staff member and 16 delegated work assignments," et cetera, et cetera, we 17 might have been discussing Tammy at the time. And Ava 18 made a comment, "Tammy was a very good person." I made 19 a note. 20 Q. Was that true that she trained, mentored, and 21 supervised the trainer/GIS support staff member and 22 delegated work assignments? 23 A. No. 24 Q. So that was inaccurate, that portion right 25 here?	Page 208 1 Q. All right. Well, did this go into your 2 consideration? I mean, Ms. Slaughter, as far as you're 3 telling the jury right now, is putting inaccurate 4 comments on her resume, correct? 5 A. This is Ms. Slaughter's interpretation of her 6 responsibilities and her job. I disagree with her 7 characterization. 8 Q. Did you say something about that to her? 9 A. I don't recall in the context of the interview 10 whether we discussed specifically "Ava, I do not agree 11 with these statements." I think it's unlikely I did. 12 Q. Well, you talked about Tammy, obviously, 13 because you made a notation that -- "Tammy was a very 14 good person," came up in the conversation; is that 15 correct? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. Did you consciously not discuss the fact 18 that -- as you're saying here now under oath -- that 19 Ms. Slaughter's characterization of her relationship 20 with Tammy was inaccurate? 21 A. Only Ms. Slaughter can speak to what her 22 relationship with Ms. Long was. I can't speak to her 23 mind-set. 24 Q. Okay. Mr. Richardson, you're interviewing 25 Ms. Slaughter for a position.
Page 207 1 A. Well, let's look at each one of these 2 individually. 3 Q. Okay. 4 A. She did have to provide some troubleshooting 5 training to Tammy. 6 Q. Okay. 7 A. I can't speak to whether or not she had a 8 mentoring relationship with her. Tammy may have looked 9 up to her. I don't know the answer to that. It 10 certainly wasn't a formal relationship that the firm put 11 in place. And she did not supervise Tammy. If we had 12 to -- if Tammy's secondary responsibilities involved 13 providing desk-side support, those types of requests 14 would come into Ava. Ava would create a list and say 15 "Tammy, here are the things that I would like you to 16 address." That does not make her Tammy's supervisor. 17 She did, I expect -- related to that, she delegated some 18 of these assignments to her, "Here are the things I need 19 your help with." Again, that does not make her her 20 supervisor. 21 Q. Who was supervising Tammy? 22 A. I was the direct report for Tammy. 23 Q. Okay. So that puts Tammy and Ms. Slaughter on 24 a peer-peer level, correct? 25 A. By definition I think that would be correct.	Page 209 1 A. Right. 2 Q. And you've told this jury that you gave her 3 serious consideration for this position. 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. And that you've worked with this lady for two 6 and a half years at this point almost, approximately. 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. All right. And you've now told us under oath, 9 again, that she put something in this that's not true. 10 Why didn't you confront her about that? 11 A. I think I've answered that question. 12 Q. Okay. Was it true that she coordinated 13 vacation schedules, Ms. Slaughter? 14 A. To the extent that -- I'm not sure "coordinate" 15 is the right word. If Tammy wanted to take vacation, 16 she would ask for my approval. I would want to make 17 sure that Ava was not on vacation at the same time to 18 insure we had coverage. There is a certain amount of 19 coordination involved there. But it's just as much 20 Tammy coordinating with Ava as it is Ava coordinating 21 with Tammy. 22 Q. All right. Is there any other information in 23 this area that you find inaccurate? 24 A. Nothing -- nothing jumps out at me, no. 25 Q. Okay. But before you go on: "participate in

Page 210 1 all GIS managers' conference calls and activities." 2 We know, based upon what you've -- 3 A. I'm sorry. Where is that? 4 Q. It's right at the top right before the bullet 5 points. 6 A. I'm sorry. I actually only read the bullet 7 points. 8 Q. Okay. 9 A. Let me go back over this. 10 Well, I'd say that's a stretch. 11 Q. Okay. Anything else that you find in there? 12 I just didn't want to be unfair to you. 13 That's why. 14 A. No. I mean, there's a lot of -- a lot of 15 information listed here. 16 Q. Okay. But you were her direct report and 17 supervisor. So I assume you have knowledge of all of 18 these different areas of her job responsibilities, 19 correct? 20 A. I have certain knowledge on, I'd say, most all 21 of this. 22 Q. Okay. 23 A. It may be limited in some cases. But these 24 generally seem to be the job responsibilities, the 25 areas, I should say, that she had some responsibility	Page 212 1 Q. What does that mean? I mean, I know what 2 "assertiveness" means. But why is it question marked 3 and underlined? 4 A. You know, in looking at this now, I don't 5 recall. It may have been -- 6 Q. Okay. 7 A. -- brought up in response to the interview 8 itself that she mentioned something about assertiveness. 9 I may have said -- I may have asked her if she 10 considered herself assertive. I don't recall. 11 Q. All right. 12 A. Underneath that I wrote "yes and patient." 13 Q. All right. 14 A. At the very bottom of the resume, it says 15 "diff." But it's "difference between small and large 16 firm?" 17 Q. Okay. What are you trying to get there? 18 A. I think I wanted her thoughts on what she 19 perceived the differences to be working in a small firm 20 versus a large firm. 21 And most of what's underneath that is cut 22 off. But I expect the end of it says "go-to person." 23 Q. Okay. Do you know where the original of this 24 document resides? 25 A. I expect my lawyer has it.
Page 211 1 for. 2 Q. All right. Except for the areas that you've 3 identified so far in the second bullet point, everything 4 else is accurate? 5 A. Everything else appears to generally be 6 accurate. 7 Q. All right. Except for the stretch, 8 "participating in all GIS managers' conference calls and 9 activities"? 10 A. Right. 11 Q. All right. Can you tell me what the next set 12 of handwriting involves or what it says? 13 A. Under the Bayko, Gibson, Carnegie, Hagan & 14 Schoonmaker section, I had underlined "managed 15 day-to-day operations of six-person staff." I had made 16 a note "who?" Then to the right of that, it's dash 17 "2" -- the No. 2 -- "technical," dash, "others are 18 contractors." 19 Q. All right. What does it say next? 20 A. Underneath that it says "delegating," underline 21 underneath that, "mentoring subordinates." 22 Q. Subordinates. Okay. 23 A. I think that's what that probably says. 24 Q. Okay. 25 A. Underneath that it says "assertiveness?"	Page 213 1 Q. Okay. So you believe your lawyer has been 2 provided the original? 3 A. I believe so. 4 Q. Okay. Go ahead and tell us what the rest of 5 it -- 6 A. To the right of that, it says "enjoy large 7 firm" -- dash -- "support/stability." Underneath that 8 it says "not as much one-on-one," is what I expect it 9 says; although, it's cut off. 10 Q. And what does that mean? 11 A. I think it was that she stated she enjoys 12 working for a large firm. She enjoys the support and 13 stability. But she misses the one-on-one interaction, 14 perhaps, that she had at a small firm. 15 Q. Okay. If you'll turn to the next page, 270, 16 you know, translate the handwriting for us there. 17 A. Under the Coastal Corp. description, I have 18 written over to the right "why leave?" Underneath that 19 it says "BG open." 20 Q. Okay. 21 A. Underneath that, under Holtzman, Urquhart, I 22 have the same question "why leave?" To the right and 23 beneath that, it says "reduction in force." 24 Q. Okay. 25 A. Underneath that is a T-chart with "S" and "W."

Page 214 1 I expect that goes again to strengths and weaknesses. 2 Q. Uh-huh. 3 A. Written across that first line it says 4 "organization as necessary." 5 Q. Okay. 6 A. I don't know what that means. 7 Q. Okay. 8 A. Underneath that it says "communication" with a 9 check mark next to it. Underneath that it says 10 "existing circumstances prohibit written communication. 11 Prefers verbal communication." 12 Q. Do you know what that means? 13 A. I expect we were having a conversation about 14 what her preferred methods of communication are. And 15 she may have responded, "Under my current 16 responsibilities written communication is difficult, 17 perhaps even prohibitive." 18 Q. Did you agree with that? 19 A. I couldn't disagree with what she thinks. 20 Q. Well, but did you agree that her existing 21 circumstances made it prohibitive, written 22 communications, since you preferred verbal 23 communications? You had worked with her for a couple 24 years. 25 A. I--	Page 216 1 in writing" -- dash, dash -- "evaluate." 2 Q. Was that an appropriate response for you? 3 A. Appropriate in what way? 4 Q. Appropriate enough to justify hiring her in the 5 GIS position. 6 A. Well, not a single question merits that type of 7 decision. 8 Q. Okay. It's got to be an evaluation of the 9 whole person? 10 A. Well, it's in the context of all the different 11 elements that went into this process. 12 Q. All right. And do you believe that you 13 provided everybody with a fair opportunity to give you a 14 notion of their strengths and their weaknesses, at least 15 in terms of how they'd fit into that position? 16 A. I know that I provided everybody that 17 opportunity. 18 Q. After your interview did you feel that 19 Ms. Slaughter was qualified to carry out the duties of 20 the GIS manager? 21 A. I can't speak to my mind-set directly after 22 this interview. My recollection is that there was 23 nothing in the interview process that jumped out at 24 me-- 25 Q. Okay.
Page 215 1 Q. Did you agree with that? 2 A. I can't speak to what she prefers. 3 Q. Okay. 4 A. I don't agree insomuch that -- I don't agree 5 that her responsibilities made written communication 6 prohibitive. 7 Q. Okay. Were you giving her, do you believe, at 8 this time some criticism with respect to her not 9 communicating in writing? 10 A. Was I giving her criticism? 11 Q. Yes, sir. 12 A. No, I don't believe I was giving her criticism. 13 Q. All right. So did it just come up with respect 14 to the discussion of communication? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. All right. What does it say next with respect 17 to the-- 18 A. Bottom left? 19 Q. Yes, sir. 20 A. It says "difficult people/situation," 21 underlined. 22 Q. And do you know what that means? 23 A. I expect I asked her about how she responds to 24 difficult people or difficult situations. 25 Underneath that I wrote "step back/respond	Page 217 1 A. -- one way or the other. 2 Q. Okay. All right. Turn to 00271. And this is 3 the letter from Ms. DelRiesgo; is that correct? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. And then we turn to 00272 and 273. And can you 6 translate the writing for us on these? 7 A. At the very top left corner it says "big 8 picture" underlined, "where we're going." 9 Q. Now, let me interrupt you for just a moment. 10 Did you ask Ms. Slaughter about the big 11 picture? 12 A. I don't recall. 13 Q. Do you know if there's a reason why you 14 wouldn't have asked her about the big picture? 15 A. No, I do not. 16 Q. You asked both Ms. Adams and Ms. DelRiesgo 17 about the big picture, though, correct? 18 A. I don't know. 19 Q. Well, we know that Ms. Adams' has "big picture" 20 on it somewhere, I thought. 21 A. I don't have anything from Ms. Adams. 22 Q. Okay. 23 A. But I will say that if I asked both Ms. Adams 24 and Ms. DelRiesgo, it's very likely that the same 25 question was asked to Ms. Slaughter.

1 Q. Okay. I'm probably being unfair to you, and I
2 apologize.
3 Okay. Go ahead with respect to the next
4 words that are handwritten on the left side.
5 A. On the left side that first word was cut off.
6 Underneath that it says "strengths," "weaknesses."
7 Q. Okay.
8 A. Then underneath that it says "likes/dislikes."
9 I don't know what these say. But underneath that I
10 can -- that first word might be "success." Underneath
11 that I think it's "approach to service."
12 Q. Okay.
13 A. Over on the right side of the resume, it says
14 "delegation?" "assertiveness" underlined. Underneath
15 that it says "participation" -- I expect the next word
16 is "in"; although it's cut off -- "any firm
17 technology" -- probably cut off again -- "initiatives."
18 Q. Okay. Go to the next page.
19 A. On the left-hand side it says "firm/office
20 contacts." Under software/hardware I had made a note
21 "XP experience." And to the immediate right of that, it
22 says "A/V know-how." Underneath that, under education
23 I made a note "how far along?" referring to her degree.
24 Q. Okay.
25 A. And then at the bottom right it says

Page 219

1 "five-year, ten-year vision."
2 Q. All right. And to make sure I understand: You
3 didn't take any notes anywhere else, as far as you know?
4 A. Not that I recall.
5 Q. When you had a conversation with Ms. Slaughter
6 in September of 2003, did you encourage her to apply for
7 the position of GIS manager?
8 A. Which conversation or are you referring to any
9 conversations?
10 Q. Any conversations.
11 A. You're asking if I encouraged her?
12 Q. Yes.
13 A. I neither encouraged nor discouraged.
14 Q. Why not?
15 A. Because I didn't want to put her in the 16 position where she was getting any pressure other than 17 letting her own heart and mind guide her where she 18 wanted to go with this.
19 Q. Well, would you have been surprised if she
20 decided not to apply for the position?
21 A. No.
22 Q. And so you're just saying you were just going
23 to let her make the decision one way or the other?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. So, if she says that you discouraged her from

Page 220

1 applying to the position, she's not telling the truth?
2 A. That may be her interpretation.
3 Q. Okay. So, in other words, she would have
4 expected you to encourage her to apply for the position;
5 and you didn't do that?
6 A. She may --
7 MS. CLARK: Objection.
8 You can answer.
9 A. She may have expected that. I don't know.
10 Q. (BY MR. PADGETT) All right. Is it appropriate,
11 as far as you're concerned, for an employee to use firm
12 Assets to prepare personal memorandum or personal
13 things?
14 A. "Is it appropriate?" is that the question?
15 Q. Yes.
16 A. I guess my answer is: It depends.
17 Q. Okay. What does it depend on?
18 A. The reality is it happens.
19 Q. Uh-huh.
20 A. In the context of small, discreet, personal 21 things that may be created with firm equipment during 22 somebody's lunch hour, I don't have a real issue with 23 that.
24 Q. All right.
25 A. The context of somebody using firm resources

Page 221

1 during normal office hours, during their working hours,
2 to produce whatever it may be, something more
3 significant, that's different.
4 Q. So it's kind of a matter of degree, is what
5 you're saying?
6 A. I think so, yes.
7 Q. All right. If the person who's the GIS manager
8 or a technical support specialist were to find materials
9 that have been prepared which were private materials,
10 what should she do with them or he?
11 A. Could you be more specific?
12 Q. Well, I mean, in other words, these are the 13 people who are in charge of your databases, correct?
14 A. Right.
15 Q. And one of their jobs is to look for
16 unauthorized materials --
17 A. No.
18 Q. -- such as --
19 A. I don't agree with that.
20 Q. -- software and things like that.
21 Okay.
22 MS. CLARK: Objection.
23 Allow him to finish so that I can --
24 THE WITNESS: Sorry.
25 MS. CLARK: -- lodge an objection. But

Page 222 1 you can go on and answer. 2 Q. (BY MR. PADGETT) Okay. And you say that you 3 don't agree with that statement. 4 Why don't you agree with that? 5 A. I don't agree that their job is to go looking 6 for unauthorized use of the firm's systems. 7 Q. Okay. All right. Is one of their jobs to, I 8 guess, take computers from people who have left and 9 clean them out or anything like that? 10 A. Yes, they do rebuild computers. 11 Q. All right. If they were to discover materials 12 that had not -- that were not authorized, what should be 13 their response? 14 A. Well, I guess in the context of that question, 15 when we do rebuilds, my understanding is we strip a 16 computer. We don't go in to see what's on it -- 17 Q. Okay. 18 A. -- before we strip it. So, if they were to go 19 in and look for things, then that tells me that they're 20 snooping, for lack of a better word. 21 Q. Okay. All right. 22 A. But let's say they come across something that 23 is entirely inappropriate. They should bring it to 24 their manager's attention or the office administrator's 25 attention.	Page 224 1 area. 2 Q. Which particular area -- 3 A. If we're talking about the unauthorized 4 installation of software, then I would play a role in 5 that because that is something that had been a thorn in 6 the firm's side, the technology department's side, for 7 some time. 8 Q. Okay. 9 A. It's going to be very difficult for a GIS 10 person to go to a lawyer or a partner, for that matter, 11 and say, "You cannot do this." And it was more 12 appropriate at times for the office administrator to do 13 that. 14 Q. Okay. Fair enough. So, I mean, in other 15 words, just in terms of what we find, unfortunately, as 16 being arrogance of attorneys, sometimes they don't take 17 advice very well? 18 A. I won't disagree with that. 19 Q. Okay. And to have, I guess, what they might 20 perceive as someone in a lower level coming to give them 21 instructions with respect to something along the lines 22 of their computer or what they perceive as their 23 computer, it might take a little bit higher level 24 authority to make that sort of instruction stick? 25 A. Sometimes, yes.
Page 223 1 Q. I mean, is it appropriate, though, for 2 individuals, I mean, as far as you're concerned, to use 3 the firm resources for private matters? 4 MS. CLARK: Objection; asked and answered. 5 But you can answer. 6 A. The reality is: I know at times that happens. 7 Q. (BY MR. PADGETT) Okay. Do you know who was 8 responsible, I guess, in some ways for maintaining the 9 office computer equipment during the time period of, 10 say, from 2001 through September of 2003? 11 A. Generally it was Ava Slaughter. 12 Q. Okay. Who was responsible, if you can recall, 13 in that same time period for doing -- implementing the 14 firm technology standards and the policies and the 15 programs? 16 A. In the Houston office? 17 Q. Yes, sir. 18 A. Ava Slaughter would play a role in that. 19 Q. Who else would have been involved? 20 A. It could be folks from the firm GIS. 21 Q. Okay. 22 A. It could include myself. 23 Q. What sort of level of participation did you 24 have in that? 25 A. Well, I guess it depends on the particular	Page 225 1 Q. Okay. For example, what you were talking about 2 with the screen savers, those types of things, correct? 3 A. Correct. 4 Q. Okay. And, I mean, you know, I remember -- and 5 we probably all remember -- those toasters and all those 6 different things. People really got into them for a 7 little while. But, at the same time, they were such 8 system bogs. In other words, the resources of the 9 system would be so slowed down by them that it would 10 create a huge issue; would that be correct? 11 A. That is correct. 12 MR. PADGETT: Let me take a break here for 13 a second. 14 (Recess taken.) 15 Q. (BY MR. PADGETT) Okay. So back to the 16 question: They were creating issues. And that would 17 have been an appropriate instruction from you with 18 respect to, "Don't put those screen savers and those 19 types of things onto the computer," correct? 20 A. It would have been appropriate for that 21 communication to come from the office administrator, 22 yes. 23 Q. Okay. Who would have been responsible for the 24 department productivity during the time period of 2001 25 through 2003? Would that have been you?

Page 226 1 A. Well, can you define "productivity" as -- 2 Q. Well, in other words, the effectiveness of how 3 clearly -- of how the department was working. 4 A. Well, ultimately it would fall under Kevin 5 Richardson as the office administrator. 6 Q. Okay. And the same thing with respect to the 7 department personnel, overseeing them and monitoring 8 attendance and performance issues? 9 A. The HR department. 10 Q. Would that be HR department, again? 11 A. Yes, it would be. 12 Q. Okay. All right. Who would have been 13 responsible for resolving problems or reporting problems 14 with respect to the GIS issues during that time period? 15 A. I'm not sure I fully understand. Can you give 16 me a -- either be more specific or give me an example? 17 Q. Well, in other words, if there was some issue 18 with respect to how the department was functioning -- I 19 assume you had a GIS department at that time period, 20 correct? I mean, that was Ms. Slaughter; but it was the 21 department, right? 22 A. The department, yes. 23 Q. Okay. With respect to how the department -- 24 and I guess I'm talking more about the technical issues, 25 not necessarily with respect to her personally.	Page 228 1 instruct you not to disclose by whom or the content of 2 the information. But if you recall the date, then you 3 may respond. 4 A. November, 2003. 5 Q. (BY MR. PADGETT) All right. And I'm going to 6 ask you: Who informed you of the filing of a complaint? 7 A. Stacey Brown. 8 Q. Okay. What did you and Ms. Brown talk about? 9 A. I recall it was something about, "Ava is 10 unhappy with the decision. She would like an 11 investigation. I have asked her to contact human 12 resources director." That's what I recall. 13 Q. Okay. So, in other words, Ms. Brown came to 14 you and said she had been contacted by Ms. Slaughter 15 with respect to the decision not to hire -- or to hire 16 Ms. DelRiesgo as the GIS manager, correct? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. All right. And what was your response to 19 Ms. Brown's notification? 20 A. Ms. Slaughter should avail herself to every, 21 you know, avenue open to get a comfort level with the 22 decision process. 23 Q. Did you have any discussions with Mr. Whiting 24 about the decision? 25 A. About...
Page 227 1 A. Okay. 2 Q. But who was in charge of those types of 3 aspects? 4 A. Well, ultimately all nonlawyer functions fall 5 under my responsibility. 6 Q. Okay. 7 A. And the different departments report to me. 8 Not everything that occurs in a department -- be it a 9 problem, a change, or something else -- finds its way to 10 my desk. 11 Q. Okay. 12 A. So I count on the staff working in those 13 different departments to communicate with me different 14 challenges that they may be faced with. 15 So, to answer your question: Yes, those 16 responsibilities ultimately fall under my umbrella. But 17 each staff member is responsible for assuming some of 18 those responsibilities as well. 19 Q. Have you ever had any complaints made against 20 you with respect to discrimination or anything of that 21 nature? 22 A. No, I have not. 23 Q. When did you first receive notification that 24 Ms. Slaughter had made a complaint of discrimination? 25 MS. CLARK: Before you answer, I want to	Page 229 1 Q. The decision to hire Ms. DelRiesgo. 2 MS. CLARK: Objection; vague. 3 But you can answer. 4 A. Well, the decision to hire Ms. DelRiesgo, yes. 5 Q. (BY MR. PADGETT) Okay. All right. And, I 6 guess, let me back up for a minute and ask you: Who 7 made that decision? 8 A. Well, ultimately Hugh Whiting made that 9 decision. 10 Q. All right. You don't have the opportunity to 11 have an input into that decision? 12 A. I absolutely have an input. 13 Q. And so, if you had said it was to be 14 Ms. Slaughter, can you be overruled? 15 A. Absolutely. 16 Q. All right. But do you think your opinion makes 17 for a big impact in who it is that is actually hired or 18 not hired in a position? 19 A. As it applies to staff, I think my opinion has 20 an impact, yes. 21 Q. All right. Some are more equal than others, 22 basically? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. All right. Now, I understand that there were 25 at least five people who gave evaluations of the

Page 230 1 candidates for GIS manager. 2 A. Well, I'm not sure I'd characterize it like 3 that. There were four individuals that went through the 4 interview process. 5 Q. Okay. 6 A. Once a selection was made, the fifth person was 7 asked to weigh in on technical abilities, I believe is 8 how we were looking at it at the time. 9 Q. Okay. So, in other words, you vetted that 10 decision past the regional manager, which is 11 Ms. White -- 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. -- to make certain that she had the proper 14 technical know-how? 15 A. To make sure that she was comfortable with -- 16 that, you know, there wasn't something we were missing. 17 Q. Okay. Did she provide you with a written 18 response to your request? 19 A. I don't recall receiving a written response, 20 no. 21 Q. Do you know why none of this was put into 22 writing? 23 A. The regional manager's input? 24 Q. Yes. 25 A. No, I don't know why it wasn't put into	Page 232 1 A. (No verbal answer.) 2 Q. I mean, as far as you know. 3 A. Could you be more specific? 4 Q. Absolutely. A terrible question. Sorry about 5 that. 6 Do you think that out there there are 7 other people who are in the same position as 8 Ms. Slaughter in other local offices? 9 A. Maybe I can restate it. You tell me if I'm 10 answering your question. 11 Q. Okay. 12 A. I believe there are other African-Americans in 13 the TSS organization that fill roles similar to what 14 Ms. Slaughter fills. 15 Q. Okay. And, no, I wasn't asking about 16 African-Americans, specifically. But I'm glad you 17 answered it that way because that gives me a little bit 18 more of an understanding. 19 But I was asking: Is that position in 20 other law -- or other local offices, the position of 21 TSS? 22 A. Do other -- let me again ask you: Do other 23 offices have a tech support specialist -- 24 Q. Bingo. 25 A. -- on staff?
Page 231 1 writing. 2 Q. All right. Do y'all have procedures that you 3 follow with respect to hiring and firing of individuals? 4 A. I am not aware of written procedures as it 5 pertains to interviewing candidates. There are written 6 procedures, I believe, as it goes to the actual 7 administrative side of hiring someone, making them an 8 employee on our books. 9 Q. Okay. All right. Do you guys have to file 10 EEOIs, as far as you know? 11 A. Yes, I believe we do. 12 Q. All right. And how many African-Americans are 13 in the position of GIS manager across the organization? 14 A. I don't know the answer to that. 15 Q. Do you know how many are in the position of TSS 16 or technical support specialist, whatever? 17 A. No, I do not. 18 Q. All right. How many people actually are TSSs 19 in your organization? 20 A. I do not know the answer to that. 21 Q. Is it possible that Ms. Slaughter is the only 22 one in that position? 23 A. I think it's unlikely. 24 Q. Okay. So you think there are some other 25 classifications that exist that are similar to hers?	Page 233 1 Q. Right. 2 A. I don't know the answer to that. 3 Q. Okay. Why was Ms. DelRiesgo hired at a higher 4 salary than Ms. Slaughter is paid? 5 A. Well, the salary that Ms. DelRiesgo was brought 6 in with, in fact, was less than what Ava Slaughter had 7 made the previous two years. 8 Q. Okay. 9 A. We wanted to -- well, I should say we look at 10 market. We look at making this an attractive offer so 11 the employee wants to come to this position. So it was 12 a combination of market and value that drove the salary. 13 Q. And is that the reason why Mr. Nielsen -- 14 Am I saying that right, Nielsen? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. -- why Mr. Nielsen's salary is that much higher 17 as well is because the market has changed over the time 18 period? 19 A. The market has changed. In the case of 20 Mr. Nielsen, he has more experience. He has a four-year 21 degree. So, again, it's a combination of those reasons 22 that drive the salary. 23 Q. All right. Have you been involved in 24 supervising Ms. Slaughter since the day that 25 Ms. DelRiesgo was hired?

Subject Ava Slaughter

Today I met with Ava to discuss general office related GIS issues. In this meeting I also notified Ava that as we draw closer to our relocation I wanted her to know that Hugh and I have had many discussions regarding the needs/demands of the office, particularly demands placed on GIS. I told Ava that the demands placed on Houston GIS require us to add a second person, and that we were going to add the position of GIS Manager. I explained that we didn't know if that person would be internal or external to the Firm, and that the first step was to provide an internal posting and that I wanted her to have notice prior to the posting. I then provided Ava with the job posting.

Ava commented that she thought I would have assumed she'd be interested given what she currently does. I explained to Ava this was a different position, she asked how so and I responded I would let the job description speak for itself. This concluded our discussion regarding the Manager position.
